

1275 - Central Saanich Public Works, Saanichton, B.C.

The customer needed to keep an existing concrete foundation to retain its inventory of road salt, but the superstructure was in a bad state of disrepair. BuildWorks took responsibility for the re-engineering of the foundations and constructed a new Megadome, providing easy access for loaders, a naturally lit interior and many years of continued use of the facility.

