

1419 - Sea to Sky Soils, Pemberton, B.C.

Sea to Sky soils operates a commercial composting facility in this open-ended MegaDome, and uses a blend of commercial and municipal food waste, along with other commercially generated organics (fish waste and agricultural waste) generated within the region, to produce a weed free, nutrient rich, “Grade A” compost that is ideal for use in local food production.

