

789 - DOGWOOD FUR FARMS – Aldergrove, B.C.

Fur-bearing animal production at the well-established Dogwood Fur Farms, results in a lot of animal waste production. Good manure management practices suggested a MegaDome structure as the ideal place for the storage and processing of manures into environmentally safe and valuable compost. The hot-dip galvanized structure was furnished with gable end screens and side-wall air-intakes for excellent ventilation.

